Crunchy granulates:

Sometimes it just has to be simple. Due to their special production process, Crunchy granulates offer a wide range of possible combinations. Whether pure fruit, with vegetables, herbs or spices, with yogurt, coffee, cocoa or caramel, everything is possible here. The different cut sizes available allow the use in any application. This is how we offer our customers an individual, crispy taste experience.

Versatile use as topping with a crunch, tasty ingredient for doughs or fillings, etc.

Fruit & vegetable powders

They color, flavor and are easy to use: our fruit and vegetable powders add variety to your product portfolio. Thanks to their 100% naturalness, the possible uses of our easy-to-dose powders are virtually unlimited. They can be used perfectly as decoration or additional flavor carrier in all kinds of baked goods.

Our fruit powders are yummy eye-catchers in sweet varieties - such as muffins, cookies, cake fillings, creams and icings - as well as bread or dough masses.

Whole fruits/pieces

Decorative, crunchy and delicious: our fruit pieces and slices are the perfect ingredient for baked goods. Carefully cut and gently freeze-dried, they retain all their valuable ingredients, are delicious and also look great in the end product. The gentle production process preserves the natural shape and color of the fruit - without any additives.*

*Attention! Avoid high baking temperature/ too long baking time

Enhance the look and taste as decoration on chocolate candy, cakes, muffins or as delicious boost in dough masses or cream fillings.
